

Global Port Restrictions

- United States: Vessels that have been to China (excluding Hong Kong and Macau) or embarked crew members who have been in China (excluding Hong Kong and Macau) within the last 14 days, with no sick crew members, will be permitted to enter the U.S. and conduct normal operations, with restrictions.
- Australia: Vessels must not enter the pilotage area until 14 days have elapsed since the ship's departure from mainland China.
- Philippines: All vessels calling from China within 14 days must be boarded at quarantine anchorage; direct berthing privilege cancelled to all vessels. List of the port of calls must be submitted to all port authorities.
- Vietnam: All vessels calling from China, Hong Kong and Korea within last 14 days will be isolated at outer anchorage for medical inspection. Cailan (VNLJI): all vessels calling from any country with confirmed case will be isolated at outer anchorage for medical inspection. Crew will not be allowed to go ashore; exchange is not allowed.
- Arab Emirates: All vessels coming directly or having last port or transited from China within last 30 days will need to provide a statement/report declaring if any crew onboard has symptoms similar to Coronavirus before entering to the port limit. Crew exchange and signing on/off are not permitted.
- Saudi Arabia: All vessels coming from China within 14 days of departure, should notify Ministry of health hotline, ports and maritime authority and Port Control for the procedures. A list of past visiting ports, Chinese crew members and any passengers with the similar symptoms to the virus must be reported.
- Oman: All vessels are required to submit the IMO Declaration of Health Report together with the Coronavirus questionnaire. Crew list must be submitted along with the declaration form. All crew joining from China in the past 16 days must hold a recent and valid medical fitness certificate.
- Singapore: All arriving vessels with crew and passengers that have called at ports in mainland China and virus high risk countries (Iran, Northern Italy, and the Republic of Korea) in the past 14 days must submit the Maritime Declaration of Health Form. All vessels and crew members are NOT allowed to enter into Singapore or to transit through Singapore without inspection and approval.
- Malaysia: All arriving vessels with crew and passengers that have called at ports in mainland China are required to submit the Maritime Declaration of Health Form. Screening procedure will be performed for all crew.
- Thailand: All arriving vessels with crew and passengers that have called at ports in mainland China and any other countries with confirmed case such as South Korea, Italy and Iran are required to submit the Maritime Declaration of Health Form. Daily body temperature of all crew members to be provided.
- Indonesia: Before berthing and entering to the port, the port authority will arrange inspection at outer anchorage for vessel and all crew members especially vessel from/transit in China and any other country with confirmed cases (*6-10 hours of inspection). Crew members are allowed to go shore after receiving health confirmation.

- Bangladesh: All arriving vessels with crew and passengers that have called at ports in mainland China are required to be boarded at outer anchorage and submit the Maritime Declaration of Health Form.
- Taiwan: Port authorities will not issue temporary stay permits or entry permits to Chinese crew members of incoming ships. All Chinese crew are not allowed to disembark or embark from all ports in Taiwan.
- South Korea: All vessels from China, Hong Kong, Macau, Italy and Iran for the past 14 days are required to have onboard quarantine inspection. Free pratique will be granted after passing the inspection. All Chinese seafarers with passport issued in Hubei province is prohibited to enter Korea; All valid Korean visa issued in Hubei province has temporarily lost its effect until further notice; All foreigners that have visited Hubei province in the past 14 days is prohibited to enter Korea.
- Japan: All vessels arriving from foreign port are requested to complete health questionnaire form and submit the same to quarantine office before ship's arrival. No other particular restrictions in Japan at the moment for those non-contaminated vessels and crew members.
- United Kingdom: Currently no restrictions on Chinese vessels entering ports, however the local Port Health Authority must receive crew list, crew change information and a Maritime Declaration of Health in advance of arrival.
- Italy: All vessels calling at Italian ports must ask for Sanitary Freepratique. The said request for Sanitary Freepratique must include: Maritime declaration of health; copy of SSECC; passenger list and crew list; list of the port of calls during the previous 14 days.
- Spain: Maritime health declaration to be issued by master upon arrival and to be uploaded by Port web application who will inform Sanitary authority.
- Panama: Vessels coming from country or port with confirmed cases of virus should report the condition to the Panama Maritime Single Window (VUMPA), within 30 days prior to their arrival.
- Suez: No restriction; however crew change is not allowed without the authority's approval and confirmation.